

Region 6

Jeanine Wichman

North Central Iowa Genealogy Society has been active with monthly meetings. In May another grouping of the local photographs, that have been scanned, was reviewed. In June unique and unknown stories of the past were reviewed. Lost gold from a robbery over a hundred years ago was one of the tales. In July some of the members reported on their Civil War ancestors.