

Education Committee Report
April, 2026

Since January classes we have sponsored:

- Two classes dealing with organizing your research - paid class
- Using google to maximize your research - paid class
- Wills and Probate -paid class
- Lunch and Learn explaining “My Heritage “Library Edition -free

Moving Forward: All of these events are outlined on our website

- Byron Strom - April 23rd 1PM - free event - History
- Excel 101 for Genealogist - May 19 -paid workshop
- Women in the Revolutionary War - June 13 - free event celebrating America 250

In the planning stage.

Summer mini conference with nationally known genealogist Jay Fonkert - July 11th a.m. In person event. Conference will focus on discovering Immigration patterns that led our ancestors to the midwest - with a emphasis on Iowa - and how to use this information in our research.

Planning stages for fall and winter:

- Quaker heritage and records class
- More using google for research classes and workshops
- DNA Class
- Researching Revolutionary War ancestors
- Fold3
- Irish soldiers in the Revolutionary War
- And more

Fall conference: Save the Date Saturday October 17th
Dead Men DO Tell Tales
Kim Alberg “JigSaw Genealogy”

This will be a four class event
Hybrid

Vendors